FERPA Redisclosure Limitation: In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 you are hereby notified that this information is provided upon the condition that you, your agents, or employees will not permit any other party access to this record without consent from the student.

Accreditation: Saint Louis University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. In addition, various programs, departments, colleges, and schools within the University hold individual accreditation from their individual accrediting agencies.

Semester Credits: All credits for courses are given in terms of semester credits.

Language of Instruction: This is to certify that the primary language of instruction at Saint Louis University is English. All coursework is delivered in English unless explicitly stated otherwise in the course description listed at <https://catalog.slu.edu>.

GPA: The Grade Point Average (GPA) is calculated by dividing the total number of quality points (PTS/QPts) earned by the total number of credit hours (CRED/GPA-Hrs) attempted for a grade (GRD). GPA is calculated using an unweighted 4.00 scale with each course contributing equally to the GPA regardless of discipline or academic level. Beginning Fall 2014, the Grade Point Average (GPA) displayed is rounded at two digits to the right of the decimal point, except the School of Law which is truncated at three digits to the right of the decimal point.

"R" Column: The column heading "R" displays courses repeated: "I" indicates included in Earned Hours and GPA; "E" indicates excluded from Earned Hours and GPA; "A" indicates excluded from Earned Hours but included in GPA. Prior to Fall 2015 all grades were included in the GPA; Fall 2015 to the present only the latest grade is retained in the GPA except the School of Law and the Doctor of Medicine (MD).
